Dear Mr. Greaney:

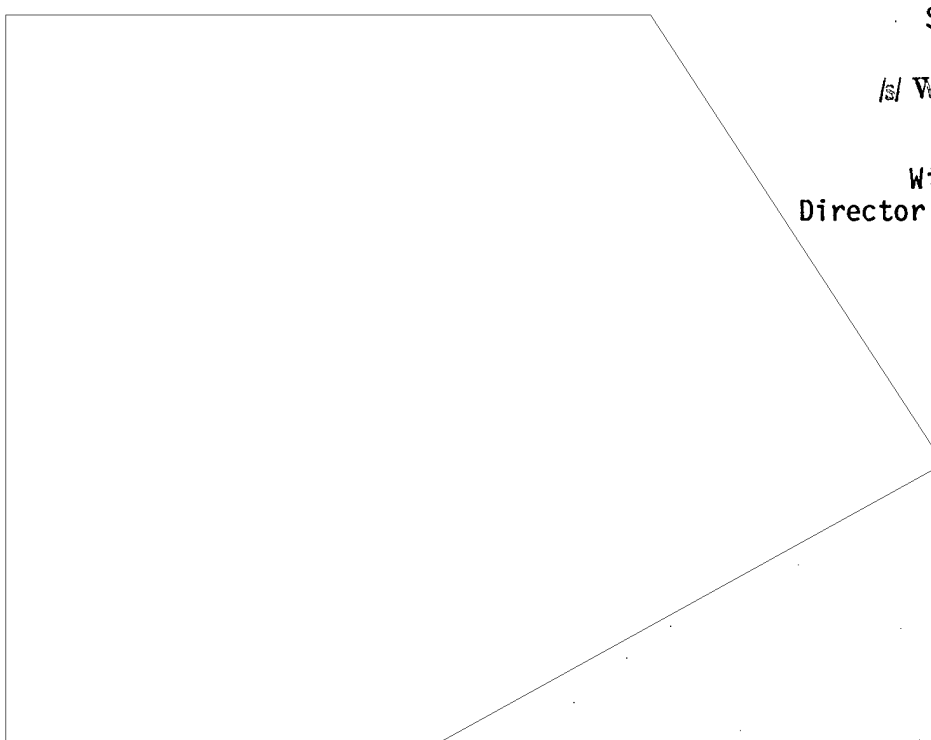

I just learned that it is necessary for me to be abroad at the time of your conference on October 15th. I was looking forward to meeting with the former Intelligence Officers, and I am truly disappointed not to be present. However, my Deputy Director Robert Gates will be available to address the luncheon in my place. If this meets with your approval, a member of my Public Affairs Office will be in touch with you to make further arrangements.

Warmest regards.

Sincerely yours,

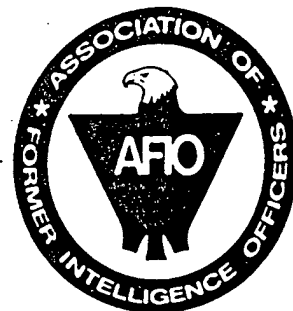

/s/ William H. Webster

Dear Bill,

I enjoyed the luncheon yesterday and appreciate your help in getting Judge Webster scheduled to address our convention luncheon on Saturday, October 15, 1988, at 1:00 p.m.

The convention will be held at the Tyson's Corner Sheraton. The two-day program will focus on analysis, with the theme of "Analysis Today and Tomorrow." Based on past experience, we would expect an audience of about 250.

Sincerely,

John K. Greaney
Executive Director

RE: Speaking Invitation
Association of Former Intelligence Officers
Tyson's Corner, Virginia
15 October 1988

Executive Director of the Association of Former Intelligence Officers (AFIO), John Greaney, has invited you to address the AFIO Annual Convention at a luncheon on Saturday, 15 October at the Tyson's Corner Sheraton. The suggested format is 20 minutes of remarks followed by 10 minutes of questions and answers. The theme of the convention is "Analysis Today and Tomorrow." Approximately 250-300 former intelligence officers and guests will make up the audience. The media is expected to cover the event.

AFIO was organized in 1975 by former intelligence personnel from the military and civilian intelligence and security agencies. Its purpose is to promote public understanding of, and support for, a strong and responsible national intelligence establishment. Chairman of the NIC, Fritz Ermarth, will give the keynote address on "Analysis and Intelligence" Friday morning and Ambassador Anne Armstrong will speak at the Friday evening banquet.

You were invited to address the AFIO convention last year, and declined. However, I believe this year you should speak at the AFIO convention and I have asked [ ] to reserve the time on your calendar. If you agree, please sign the attached letter of acceptance.

Dear Mr. Greaney:

I accept with pleasure your invitation to address the Association of Former Intelligence Officers (AFIO) at a luncheon on Saturday, October 15th at the Tyson's Corner Sheraton. I look forward to meeting with you and the members of AFIO at your national convention. We in the Intelligence Community appreciate the fine support that your organization gives us in our mission to safeguard our free society.

Warmest regards.
